3. 1ST SCRIPTURE READING

1 Thessalonians 4:13 - 18

13- But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14- For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15- For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16- For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17- Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18- Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

4. HYMN 1

1 Corinthians 15: 51 – 58

51- Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52- In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53- For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

PASTOR

Kenneth OSAGHAE AYERE

THURSDAY 8TH OCTOBER 2026

54- So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55- O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56- The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57- But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58- Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

4. 1ST SCRIPTURE READING – Romans 14: 7 – 9 (KJV), 1 Corinthians 15: 19 – 26 (NIV)

Romans 14: 7 – 9 (KJV),

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.
8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.
9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

1 Corinthians 15: 19 – 26 (NIV)

19 If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.
20 But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.
21 For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man.
22 For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.
23 But each in turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him.

PASTOR

Kenneth OSAGHAE AYERE

FRIDAY 9TH OCTOBER 2026

24 Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power.
25 For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.
26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

5. TESTIMONY

6. HYMN 2

GLORIOUS GOD

Glorious God,
You're Beautiful
Mighty God, Prince Of Peace
And Lord Of All
You Are Holy, Holy
Holy Is Your Name

You Are Worthy, Worthy
Worthy Is Your Name

You Are Righteous, Righteous
Righteous Is Your Name

You Are Gracious, Gracious
Gracious Is Your Name

Hallelujah, We Thank You
We Thank You

7. 2ND SCRIPTURE READING – 2ND Corinthians 5: 1 – 10 (NIV)

1 For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands.
2 Meanwhile we groan, longing to be clothed instead with our heavenly dwelling,
3 because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked.
4 For while we are in this tent, we groan and are burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed but to be clothed instead with our heavenly dwelling, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.
5 Now the one who has fashioned us for this very purpose is God, who has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.
6 Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord.
7 For we live by faith, not by sight.
8 We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord.
9 So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it.
10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each of us may receive what is due us for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

PASTOR KENNETH OSAGHAE AYERE, we therefore commit his body to the ground:

- Ashes to ashes
- Dust to dust;

in the sure and certain hope that the spirit which has returned to God who gave it will be reunited with his resurrected body at the rapture of the Church, when the Lord Himself shall descend with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of the God. TRIBUTES

Tribute to My Husband

My dear husband, Pastor Kenneth Ayere,

You led me to Christ in 1994. I was once lost, but now I am saved because of you, my husband. My teacher, my pastor, my prayer partner, I miss you. I don't know who can fill the emptiness you have left in my life.

I thank you for teaching me about the Holy Spirit. He is my Comforter now, and I am grateful that you introduced me to Him.

My joy is knowing that you are right now in the bosom of the Lord. Through you, every member of our family came to know what the love of God is because you taught us how to love. You taught your lovely children to walk in love, just as the Scripture says, "All thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children."

I will forever remember you for being not just a husband, but also a friend, a teacher, and a daddy who had the fear of the Lord.

Daddy, you lived an impactful life, a life dedicated to winning souls. You were a man who loved God with all your life. My Honey, I will miss your smile, your presence, and all the beautiful moments we shared.

Though I miss you deeply, I have the assurance that you are with the Lord. I look forward to seeing you again on the last day.

Until then, you will forever remain in my heart.

I love you, my Husband.

TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED DADDY

AYERE KENNETH OSAGHAE

Daddy,

Your name was Ayere Kenneth Osaghae, but like we all called you, Daddy.

To me, you were the best father any child could ask for.

I honestly don't know where to begin because it still doesn't feel real that I am writing a tribute for you.

You were such a big part of our lives, and it is difficult to put into words what your absence feels like.

You loved your family to the core. Everything you did was always for us. Even when things were difficult and you didn't have much, you still made sure we had what we needed. You always provided for us and did everything within your capacity to make sure your children did not suffer.

When I was younger, you made sure you didn't spare the rod so I wouldn't be spoiled. Whenever I did something wrong, you disciplined me. Looking back now, I understand that it was your way of making sure I grew up to become a good man.

Daddy, you taught me so many things, but I would say I learned a lot from simply observing you.

I watched your prayer life.

I watched you and Mum wake up at 12 midnight and pray until 3am. I watched how seriously you took your relationship with God. You didn't just tell us to pray or have faith in God. You showed us what it looked like to actually live a life of faith.

You taught me that prayer works.

You taught me that having faith in God works.

You taught me that serving and believing in God is one of the best things a person can do.

And you didn't just teach these things with your words. You lived them.

You served God all the days of your life. You were an ordained Pastor in Christ Embassy. You loved winning souls for Christ, and you impacted the lives of many people.

You were a caring and faith-filled man who gave his all to your family and to God. You stood firm in your faith and remained committed to Christ. I know that people will always remember Kenneth Ayere as a good man, a servant of God, a man who loved his family deeply, and someone who was truly gallant for Christ.

There are so many memories I have of you that I honestly cannot choose one as my favorite.

Some of the memories that always comes to mind is when you and I would go to Shoprite or Just rite when I was younger. Even when you might not have had much, you still made sure we had something, so I wouldn't feel inferior or left out among my peers and also how you celebrated my 20th birthday with so much joy even with everything that was happening that period.

Looking back now, I realize that those moments were your way of showing me how much you cared.

You never wanted your children to feel like they were missing out. You always did what you could to make sure we were okay.

You brought mom and others before I was born from Benin to Lagos and when I was given birth too in 2006 you said I was a blessed child because that's when you gained work in KPMG.

PASTOR

Kenneth

OSAGHAE AYERE

FRIDAY 9TH OCTOBER 2026

You provided everything you could for us. You worked, you sacrificed, and you gave your all just to make sure your family was okay.

That was the kind of father you were.

You were a father who made sure his children and his wife never suffer. And honestly, Daddy, I never had a reason to regret having you as my father. You were the best father anybody could ask for.

Daddy, you were only 61. You were supposed to turn 62 on September 30.

I still find it difficult to understand that you are gone.

That night, around 2am, you told Mum and my brothers that you weren't breathing well and that you needed to be taken to the hospital. On the way there, you became unconscious, and by the time you got to the hospital, there was no pulse. Everything happened so suddenly.

I had just finished my second-semester 300-level exams. I was already looking forward to coming home and being with the family. I had seen you around May or June, and in my mind, I was going to see you again.

I never knew that would be the last time I would see you.

And I wasn't even there when it happened. I was in school.

When I finally found out the following Thursday, I couldn't believe it. I cried so much. I was hurt, confused and just kept asking myself, "Just like that?"

How can someone you spoke to, someone you saw, someone who was just there, suddenly be gone?

I wish I had known that the last time I saw you would be the last.

I wish I could have come home earlier.

I wish I could have seen you one more time.

I wish I could have hugged you one more time.

Most of all, Daddy, I wish I could have told you how much I love you and how grateful I am to have had you as my father. But even though I didn't get that last moment with you, I will always be grateful for all the moments I did have with you.

And I will hold on to those memories for the rest of my life. Daddy, your last born is in 400 level now.

Your last born is in his semi-finals. I wish you could see how big your last born has become.

I wish I could have told you myself.

I wish you could see me now and know that I am still pushing forward.

I wish I could hear what you would say about it.

That is one of the things I wish for the most.

I wish you were here to see the man I am becoming.

But even though you are not here physically to see it, I know that a lot of the person I am becoming is because of you. You taught me.

You corrected me. You disciplined me. You prayed. You provided. You loved us.

You showed me what it meant to have faith. And you showed me what it meant to put God first.

I don't have any regrets about you, Daddy.

I don't regret anything about our relationship.

I don't regret having you as my father.

If anything, I am grateful.

I am grateful that God gave me you as my father.

I am grateful for every memory.
I am grateful for every correction.
I am grateful for every prayer.
I am grateful for every time you provided for us, even when it wasn't easy.
I am grateful for every trip to Shoprite and Justrite.
I am grateful for every moment I got to spend with you.
Daddy, I miss you so much.
Sometimes I wonder why I can't cry even though I know how much this hurts me. Maybe it still hasn't fully sunk in. Maybe a part of me is still trying to understand that you are really gone. But I know that I miss you.
And I know that I love you.
I will always remember you not only as my father, but also as a man who loved his family deeply and served God with everything he had.
You gave your all to your family.
You gave your all to God.
You lived your life with faith.
And you impacted the people around you.
You were a pastor, a father, a husband, a provider, a disciplinarian, a teacher and, most importantly to me, my Daddy.
I pray that I will continue to live with the faith you taught me.
I pray that I will make you proud.
I pray and I know that I will never forget the lessons I learned from simply watching you live your life.
Daddy, thank you.
Thank you for being my father.
Thank you for loving us.
Thank you for providing for us.
Thank you for correcting me.
Thank you for praying.
Thank you for showing me what faith looks like.
Thank you for every sacrifice.
Thank you for every memory.
Thank you for everything.
You were the best father any child could ask for, and I will forever be grateful that I got to call you Daddy.
You served God faithfully.
You loved your family.
You gave your all.
You impacted lives.

And you left a legacy that I will carry with me for the rest of my life. I don't know what the future will

Tribute to My Father

Among so many memories, so many thoughts, and the huge void his passing has left in my heart, deciding what to write about my father has been very difficult. There is so much I could say about a man whose life, love, faith, and sacrifices shaped so much of who I am today.

My father was a man of great faith. He brought us up in the Word of God and gave us a foundation of faith that has stayed with us through the years. His love for God was deep and genuine, and sharing the gospel was a big part of his life.

I still remember how we started a church in the ghetto at Oniru, travelling all the way there to share the hope of the glorious gospel. Those are memories I will always carry with me. They remind me of how much he loved God and how much he wanted other people to know Him too.

He would often jokingly call me "Pastor Joshua," knowing I was pursuing a doctorate. It was one of those little things between us that always made me laugh. At the time, it was just Dad being Dad, but today it means so much more to me. It reminds me of the moments we shared and of the faith he passed on to us.

He loved his family deeply, both his immediate family and his extended family. He was selfless and generous, and he made many sacrifices for the people he loved. He worked very hard to make sure his children had a good education and the opportunity to go to university.

But his generosity did not stop with his own children. He also helped members of the extended family and relatives with their education and supported people whenever he could. He always wanted others to have a better chance in life.

Dad gave so much of himself to his family, to his faith, and to other people. He would always say, "Life is all about people; so be sure to be kind to others." From him, we learnt the value of hard work, sacrifice,

PASTOR

Kenneth

generosity, service and, above all, faith in God.

His absence has left a void that words cannot really describe, but I am deeply grateful that I had the privilege of calling him my father. I am grateful for the lessons, the sacrifices, the prayers, the love, and the example he gave us.

Dad, you will always be remembered, deeply loved, and greatly missed. What you taught us will continue to live on in your children and in the many lives you touched.

Thank you, Dad, for all the years of nurture, guidance, sacrifice, and banks of prayers.

Indeed, as you always reminded me, "All things work together for good to those who love God and who walk in the purpose to which He has called them." - Romans 8:28 (paraphrased)

Dad, I truly believe you answered that call and fulfilled your purpose. And in that, even in our grief, we find consolation.

Until we meet again in the glorious hope you believed in so strongly, rest peacefully, Dad.

Love you,

Joshua Efosa Ayere.

Tribute to My Father

"After all, though you should have ten thousand teachers (guides to direct you) in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the glad tidings (the Gospel)."

1 Corinthians 4:15

I didn't see myself writing this in the next 10/20 years. I always believed, without a doubt, that we would all be raptured together.

My Father. My Life Coach. My Mentor.

I miss you. That night when I was rubbing your back and telling you that you would be fine as you were trying to breathe, I didn't know it was going to be our last moment together. If there is one thing I want to do with this tribute, it is simply to say THANK YOU.

Thank you for your love:

Thank you for showing me what it means to be a father.

I will pass this legacy on to your grandchildren, whom I had hoped you would be there to see me bring into this world. You made me understand what a father's love for his children looks like.

Daddy, I remember the days we would wake up and go out to do transportation work so that we could be sure we would eat. While we were doing this, Joshua, Emma, and Israel were in school respectively, yet none of them dropped out because you were jobless or because you didn't have money.

You trained all of us.

You provided for us.

You made sure we were okay.

Thank you, sir.

FRIDAY 9TH OCTOBER 2026

I wish I could tell you these words in person. I wish I could sit with you and tell you how much I appreciate everything you did for us.

But words fail me.

So, once again, thank you, sir.

Thank you for your exemplary leadership:

You were a man of peace. Most people might assume, because of your loudness and strong personality, that you were stubborn. But those who truly knew you knew that you were a man of peace.

You brought unity to your family. You brought stability. Your siblings respected you for that.

You carried the responsibility of keeping the family together, and you did it in your own way.

Thank you, Daddy, for showing us what leadership looks like.

Thank you for your life of impact:

You never liked it when the house was quiet or when there were only a few people around.

You would gather people relatives, children, friends, and everyone, and bring them into our home. You would even start paying their bills because you wanted to impact their lives.

I cannot count the number of people you have impacted through your life and ministry in these 61 years.

Irrespective of how you were treated at the Ministry, irrespective of the distance, and irrespective of how tired you were, you would still go and show up.

You were indeed a man of impact.

You didn't just preach about impacting lives. You lived it.

Thank you for showing us what it means to live a life that makes a difference.

Thank you for your investment of the Word in our lives:

Daddy, I remember growing up and your favorite scripture was:

"Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders..."

You lived this scripture.

You constantly loaded us with the Word of God. You made sure the Word was not just something we heard in church, but something that became part of who we are.

The Word of God has been so invested in us that everywhere we go, we are preachers of this Gospel.

Daddy, your investment in us will not be in vain. The Gospel, you gave us, we will continue to preach.

The values you taught us, we will continue to live by. The legacy you left us, we will continue to pass on.

I may not have been prepared to write this tribute now. I may not have been prepared to say goodbye this soon.

But I am grateful. Grateful that God gave me you as my father. Grateful for the years. Grateful for the lessons. Grateful for the sacrifices. Grateful for the love. Grateful for the Word. And above all, grateful that I got to call you Daddy.

Thank you, sir.

I love you, Daddy.

Until we meet again. Your First Son,

FRIDAY 9TH OCTOBER 2026

Dear Daddy,

I miss you so much, but I know that where you are now is a better place. Everything you taught me, every way you guided me, every instruction you gave me, and every path you showed me I will always cherish them.

You meant so much to me. Even though you have left us, you will always remain with us in our hearts. You were everything I could have asked for in a father. You cared for us, showed us what life is about, and taught us how to be strong, especially during difficult times.

Daddy, your passing hurts deeply, but God's will must be done. I will forever miss you. I will always think of you, and there will be times when I will cry for you, but I know I have to be strong.

You were my everything. You brought me into this world, showed me the right ways, and helped me through moments when I might not have made it without you. I will never forget the sacrifices you made for me and the love and care you gave me.

As time goes on, some memories may fade, but the love I have for you never will. Your teachings, your kindness, your sacrifices, and everything you stood for will always live on in me.

Thank you for your care. Thank you for your love. Thank you for being my father.

I will always love you, Daddy. I will always miss you. Your memory will forever remain in my heart.

Rest peacefully, Dad.

Your son will never forget you.

TRIBUTE TO A SPECIAL SOLDIER

Proverbs 10: 7a (NKJV) – “The memory of the righteous is blessed,...”

The memory of our dear Pastor Ken Ayere is indeed a blessed one; memories of service, impact, diligence and passion for the house of the Lord.

Pastor Ken was an impactful minister of the gospel.

He took on the call of duty to work in full-time ministry, after retiring from secular employment and became a member of staff in Christ Embassy Lagos Zone 5. This involvement in full-time ministry was one of significance, one that would continue to inspire many to active service in the house of God regardless of age.

He was a lover of God, a lover of people and visited God's people in seasons of their lives. His trips to various cities and villages just to encourage, strengthen and support Pastors, Deaconry and members of the zone at their events will not be forgotten.

He was a blessing to the Christ Embassy Free Trade Zone Group, an appointment recently added to his portfolio, giving him the platform to further express his love for the Lord Jesus Christ.

As we celebrate his life, we are grateful to the Lord especially for the unique opportunity granted Pastor Ken to minister to dignitaries - the Obas, the Baales, industry and government functionaries, people of repute and prominence, many of whom some of us have not met or may not meet on this side of heaven. He was instrumental to the invitation of many dignitaries at our ministry and zonal programs and significantly, their attendance at A Night of Blessings in September 2025. Pastor Ken's remarkable service as the Head of the Sceptre Initiative was indeed the fulfilment of a dream and the achievement of a vision at the appointed time.

While the family, Church, our Staff and beneficiary communities will miss him physically, we are confident that we will see him again at the second and the last trump. It will be a glorious reunion with him. We are therefore comforted knowing that he is with the Lord whom he loved and served so passionately.

Romans 14: 7 – 9 (KJV) says;

'7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.'

Furthermore, Revelations 14: 13 (KJV) says;

Tribute To A Zealous and Impactful Minister of the Gospel

I was introduced to Pastor Ken, then Deacon Ken, by one of our Pastors, as a man who had just retired from secular service and wanted to give his time to serving fully in the house of God. This was a one-of-a-kind employment into full time ministry, at his age.

Pastor Ken was enthusiastic about every assignment given to him from his days at CE Victoria Island Church as Facility Manager and Church Coordinator.

He was transferred to CE Lekki as Pastoral Care Assistant, where he passionately served in this capacity as well as in the Zonal Pastoral Care Department.

He was diligent, hearty, prompt and willing to do what was necessary to achieve the desired results.

He grew in his assignments to become the head of the zonal delegation to invite dignitaries for programs, church services, and for special gift presentations; a special Sceptre Initiative set up by our Highly Esteemed Regional Pastor. His appointment as the Head of the Sceptre Initiative was marked with phenomenal impact in special outreach visits to heads of industries, traditional rulers of various categories across the Islands and in Lagos - Baales, Obas, etc., heads of Police Divisions, hospitals and places of prominence. Amongst many significant contributions, his work led to the remarkable attendance of scores of dignitaries to A Night of Blessings, September 2025. He raised a team in the groups across the zone to extend the impact of the ministry to dignitaries.

When the need arose for a Pastoral Assistant to be appointed to the Office of the Free Trade Zone Group Pastor, he was found suitable as the appointee and he swiftly swung into action, resuming at the new location and doubling his responsibilities.

As the Pastoral Assistant in the Pastoral Care Department in Lekki and at the Zonal Office, he conducted naming ceremonies, water baptism, condolence visits and traveled to several locations to be with Pastors, Deaconry and members of the zone at commemorative events.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
PASTOR KENNETH OSAGHAE AYERE
30 SEPTEMBER 1964 – 6 AUGUST 2026

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven... A time to be born, and a time to die." — Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

On behalf of Holy Trinity Grammar School Sabongidda-Ora, Class of 1984, we bow in solemn grief to acknowledge the home call of our beloved brother, friend, and servant of God, Pastor Kenneth Osaghae is Ayere, who slept in the Lord on 6th August 2026.

The news of his sudden passing came to us as a rude shock. Just days before his demise, Kenneth was active, hale, hearty, and full of life — contributing, engaging, and expressing his opinions in important class discussions as he always did. Death came without warning and robbed us of a man who still had so much to give.

KENNETH THE SCHOOL BOY

We first knew Kenneth in the hallowed halls of Holy Trinity Grammar School, Sabongidda-Ora. In the Class of 1984, he served diligently as our Assistant Food Prefect. Even then, his sense of responsibility, order, and care for others stood out. He ensured his fellow students were catered for, and he carried out his duties with integrity and a smile. That was Kenneth — a servant from the very beginning.

KENNETH THE CLASSMAN

After many years, we reunited as the Class of '84, and Kenneth did not hold back. He was a very dedicated member of our association and served meritoriously as the Assistant Secretary General in our EXCO.

FRIDAY 9TH OCTOBER 2026

Kenneth was not a silent member. He always expressed his opinion on important discussions. His contributions were thoughtful, honest, and driven by a genuine desire to see our class grow and thrive. He loved the Class of '84 with all his heart, and we loved him back.

KENNETH THE MAN OF GOD

Beyond the classroom and the class meetings, Kenneth understood the purpose of his being and pursued it with unwavering devotion. He walked in impeccable character, candour, and liquid love. As a Pastor, he lived out his calling — feeding God's people, serving with humility, winning souls ardently and manifesting Christ in his daily walk.

“Well done, thou good and faithful servant... enter thou into the joy of thy lord.” — Matthew 25:23

A FINAL WORD

Pastor Kenneth Osaghae Ayere lived purposefully. He loved deeply. He served faithfully. And though his departure was sudden, we take solace in the fact that he lived a life that mattered — to God, to his family, to his church, to his community and to us, his classmates.

To his wife, children, family, and the Loveworld Kingdom he served: please accept our heartfelt condolences. We share in your pain, but we also share in the joy of having known and walked with such a noble soul.

Dear Kenneth, you will be greatly missed.

Your seat at our meetings will be empty, your voice in our discussions will be silent, but your legacy will live on in our hearts.

Sleep on, our Assistant Secretary General.

Sleep on, our Assistant Food Prefect.

Sleep on, our dear Pastor and Brother.

Until we meet again at the feet of Jesus.

Rest in Perfect Peace.

TRIBUTE TO MY DEARLY BELOVED BROTHER

My heart is heavy, words seem so inadequate to express the pain I feel at the loss of my immediate younger brother.

You were not just my younger brother; you were a part of me, a precious gift from God, and someone whose presence brought memories, laughter, and love into our family. Growing up together created a bond that time and distance could never erase.

I never imagined that I would have to write a tribute to you this soon. It hurts deeply to know that I will no longer hear your voice, see your smile, or share those moments we once took for granted.

Though my heart is broken, I choose to hold on to the beautiful memories we shared and the legacy you left behind. Your life may have ended, but your memories will forever remain in our hearts.

Rest peacefully, my dear brother.

Until we meet again, you will forever remain my brother, my father, my pastor, my family, and a cherished part of my heart.

Rest in peace.

Your big sister.

Mrs Edna F. A. Ahonsi (Elder Sister)

Tribute to My beloved brother

There are moments in life when words completely fail you, and this is one of those moments for me. I have struggled so much to write this tribute because putting these words down makes the reality of your death even more painful and real. For two months, I kept hoping that somehow this was all a terrible dream and that you would wake up. Somewhere in my heart, I kept believing that I would hear your voice again, and have another conversation with you. I kept waiting for the reality to change. I kept hoping that somehow you would come back to us. But today, the reality has finally dawned on me, and my heart is struggling to accept that you are truly gone.

My daddy thank you for that wonderful memories will share together last year December I never knew that will be our last outing together as family will share, conversations, secrets, dreams, experiences and memories that I will carry with me for the rest of my life. You knew me from a time when life was much simpler. You knew the younger version of me, before adulthood, responsibilities and the many challenges of life changed us. You were part of my journey, part of my story and part of the person I became.

PASTOR
Kenneth
OSAGHAE AYERE

FRIDAY 9TH OCTOBER 2026

When I look back at all years we spent together, I realise just how precious those memories are. At the time, we did not know that one day we would look back and wish we could relive those moments. We did not know that the laughter, conversations, jokes, visits and ordinary days we shared would one day become some of the most precious things left behind. If I had known, I would have held on to those moments a little longer. I would have taken more pictures, I would have stayed longer, I would have called more often, and I would have told you more frequently how much you meant to me.

You were strong, confident and courageous. You had a strength about you that people could feel. You were the kind of person who could stand firmly in who he was, and I admired that about you. But beyond your strength and confidence was a beautiful heart. You cared about people, you were dependable, you were someone people could lean on. You were someone who could make others feel safe simply by being there. For them you were everything anyone could have in their corner. You were my safe place.

With you, I never felt the need to pretend. I could be myself, I could talk freely, I could laugh without holding back. I could share my worries and know that you would listen. I could have conversations with you without having to explain every part of myself because you already understood me.

Your demise pierces my heart and hurts me deeply and I am not just mourning a brother. I am mourning a father, I am mourning a part of me that left, I am mourning years of memories and all the future memories I thought we would still make together. There were still so many conversations we were supposed to have, so many birthdays we were supposed to celebrate, so many moments we were supposed to share and so many memories we were supposed to create. I never imagined that one day I would have to look at our relationship as something that belongs to the past.

The hardest part is knowing that life will continue, but you will not be here to experience it with us. There will be birthdays, celebrations, family gatherings and ordinary days, and somehow we will have to continue living while carrying the knowledge that you are no longer here. There will be moments when something happens and I will instinctively think, "I need to tell brother this," only to remember that I cannot call you anymore. There will be moments when I hear something that reminds me of you, and I will smile for a second before the sadness returns because I know I cannot share that moment with you.

Brother, I still find myself struggling to believe that you are gone. A part of me still expects you to wake up. A part of me still hopes that someone will tell me that there has been a mistake. Then reality comes crashing down again, and I remember that you are no longer here. It is a pain that is difficult to explain because the heart does not understand death as quickly as the mind does. My mind knows that you are gone, but my heart keeps waiting for you.

How do you say goodbye to someone who was never supposed to leave this soon? How do you accept that someone you grew up with, someone you loved and someone you thought would always be somewhere in this world is suddenly a memory? How do you make peace with the fact that there will be no more conversations, no more laughter and no more opportunities to say the things you thought you still had time to say?

PASTOR
Kenneth

I do not have the answers. All I know is that I miss you badly my brother. Life has never been the same since you left. I will honor your memories for the rest of my life.

I miss your presence, I miss the comfort of knowing that you were somewhere in this world, I miss the memories we shared, and I already know that I will miss all the memories we will never get the opportunity to create. I miss the person you were and the place you occupied in my life.

am grateful that life gave me the privilege of knowing you

They say that to live in the hearts of those we love is never to die, and I believe that with all my heart. You may have left this world, but you have not left my heart. You will continue to live in my memories, in the stories I tell, in the laughter I remember and in the countless moments when I think about the beautiful person you were. Your granddaughter Ruth misses you so much she will say, "Mummy call Grandpa. I want to tell him something." She didn't understand that death has taken Grandpa away from her. Thank for being a big brother, a father to us. Your siblings will promise to uphold that love and unity you impacted in us.

But since I cannot change what has happened, I will hold on to the beautiful memories.

I will remember you with love

I will remember you with gratitude

I will remember you with tears. And I pray that, with time, those tears will become smiles as I remember just how blessed I was to have known you.

Thank you for being part of my life.

Thank you for loving unconditionally

Thank you for being my big brother

Thank you for being my safe place

Thank you for being someone I could count on

Thank you for every memory and every moment we shared. Thank you for being a beautiful part of my story. Happy posthumous birthday in heaven, my dear big brother I pray that you are resting peacefully in the arms of the Lord.

You were loved while you were here. You are loved even though you are gone, and you will forever be loved.

Rest peacefully, my dear brother dodo

Your journey on earth may have ended, but your memory will live on in the hearts of everyone who loved you. You will live on in the people you touched, in the memories you created and, in the lives, you made better simply by being part of them

Until we meet again, my brother, I will carry you in my heart. I will carry you with me; I will carry our

You will never be forgotten.

Your Kid Sister, Mrs Edobor Grace

My heart is heavy as I write these words in honour of my dear friend, Pastor Kenneth Ayere, fellow labourer, and fellow soldier of Christ. It is difficult to accept that you have answered the Master's call so soon, leaving behind cherished memories, unfinished dreams, and a ministry that still had so much more to accomplish.

We began this journey together as childhood friends, sharing hopes, laughter, and the simple joys of growing up. By the grace of God, our friendship matured into a shared commitment to the Gospel. Together, we looked forward to a lifetime of fruitful service in Christ Embassy Church, believing that the Lord would use us mightily to touch countless lives and spread His divine presence to the ends of the earth.

You lived your life with unwavering devotion to Christ. You served with humility, faithfulness, and an uncommon passion for souls. You were never content with doing the bare minimum. Wherever there was an opportunity to serve, you gave yourself wholeheartedly. You carried the burdens of others, encouraged the discouraged, strengthened the weak, and remained steadfast in the work of the ministry.

Your departure reminds us that God's servants do not always finish their assignments according to human expectations. You have laid down your tools while still in active service, having accomplished much, yet leaving so much more that we believed we would accomplish together. From a human perspective, your work appears unfinished, but heaven measures success differently. The Master who called you has welcomed you home, and He alone knows that your assignment was complete.

Though I grieve, I choose to celebrate your life rather than question God's wisdom. I thank God for the privilege of walking this journey with you—from childhood companions to co-labourers in Christ. Your faith, your dedication, your sacrifices, and your love for the Kingdom will continue to inspire me and everyone who had the blessing of knowing you.

Your voice may be silent, but your impact will continue to speak. The seeds you planted will keep growing. The lives you touched will keep bearing fruit. Your example will continue to challenge us to labour more faithfully until our own race is finished.

Farewell, my beloved friend. Farewell, my faithful fellow labourer. Farewell, my brother and fellow soldier of Christ.

TRIBUTE TO PASTOR KENNETH AYERE

I knew Pastor Ken while we were in the tertiary institution, over 40 years ago. We both studied the same course, and after graduation, we never really left one another's side. In fact, except for Christ Embassy, we both worked in all the places he worked here in Lagos, largely through his influence.

Kenneth was more than a friend to me; he was like a brother. We shared ideas, experiences, and memories, both in good times and in difficult moments. He was someone I could always relate with, and our bond remained strong throughout the years.

Even now, I find it difficult to believe that he is no longer with us. His passing is painful and difficult to comprehend. However, we cannot question God. We can only trust in His wisdom and hold on to the beautiful memories he left behind.

Pastor Ken, your life touched mine in a special way, and I will always cherish the years of friendship, brotherhood, and shared experiences.

May your soul continue to rest in peace until we meet again, to part no more.

Adieu, Pastor Ken!
Rest on, my dear brother and friend.

GOOD NIGHT MY DEAREST BROTHER!!!

Writing a tribute in your honor at a time like this, is the least assignment I would ever imagine at this stage and time of my life.

I am yet to wake up to the reality that you have left the stage of life suddenly without any parting words from you.

Brother, 6th of August, 2026, was a day I never imagined would come so soon.

Your sudden transition reminded me that "Life is truly a vapor, mist, or a puff of smoke that is visible for

A SPECIAL FAREWELL TRIBUTE

With thanksgiving to the Lord, I celebrate the joy, honor and opportunity to have known esteemed Pastor Ken Ayere.

He was always hearty, bubbly and energetic and every contact with him met a warm handshake and an exclamation of encouragement.

Pastor Ken was excited to talk about his work as the Head of the Scepter Initiative, his reach to the Obas, Baales, Police Officers, etc. You could hardly spend a few minutes with him and not feel the passion he had for the Lord and things he did.

He was proud of his wife and sons and had amazing testimonies of them as well as his early years in ministry and his assignments.

I looked forward to and enjoyed sessions of prayer led by him at our weekly meeting of Heads of Departments/Units in Christ Embassy Lagos Zone 5. He was always ready to lead prayers at our meetings, being one of the most punctual to arrive despite the distance he covered to get to the office.

He was focused, result – oriented and a lover of people.

I miss his signature presence at our weekly meetings and look forward to seeing him again.

I thank God for the impact he made and his works that follow him.

Indeed, we will miss him greatly in the staff community but we are confident that he is with the Lord and we will be reunited with him at the second and the last trump.

The Lord continues to comfort his family, friends, the Church community and beneficiaries of his service and impact. Amen.

It was a great privilege to have known Esteemed Pastor Ken on this side of heaven. You always had great testimonies to share from putting the Word to work. You loved to share your salvation story, how you joined Christ Embassy, testimonies from your times in the Haven, and those wonderful prayer meetings in Victoria Island. You loved your work and spoke about your dignitaries invitation assignment with great joy, always looking forward to the next ministry

Gone too soon. I still remember when we were paired as roommates for a 7-day program & you took me in as a friend despite the age difference. Thank you for your fatherly love, guidance, and all our late-night gist but you didn't include your early departure. You touched many lives for Christ and lived as a true man of faith. Who will now call me "Sunny" like you did? The trainings and meetings won't be the same without you looking out for me. I will miss you dearly, Sir. We are comforted knowing you're in a better place. Until we meet again - Adieu Sir.

It was a glorious time having the Esteemed Pastor Ken on this side of Heaven. He was always full of joy and always helping others to be successful in their given assignments. I remember before the announcement of his passing unto glory, I spoke with him at the Prayer meeting with the man of God Pastor Chris, and as he normally will do asking how I was and my work. Thank you sir for your special love and interest in me. See you at the resurrection. Keep resting till we see again.

It is with a heavy heart, yet with gratitude to God for the life he lived, that I write this tribute to a truly good man, Pastor Ken Ayere. When Pastor Ken came to work with us in the Staff Community as a Facility Manager, I quickly discovered that he was more than just a colleague. He was a man who genuinely cared about people. Pastor Ken had a unique way of checking up on me. Sometimes, he would simply come around and ask, "How is work going? I hope everything is fine?" Those simple questions meant so much to me because I knew they came from a sincere heart. Whenever we met, he always had words of encouragement for me. He would remind me not to give up, not to relent, and to keep pushing regardless of the situation. His words gave me hope and encouraged me to keep moving forward, even when things were not easy. Pastor Ken was the kind of person who made you feel that you were not alone. His presence, his kindness, his concern, and his encouraging words left an impression on me that I will never forget. I am grateful to God for allowing our paths to cross and for the privilege of knowing and working with such a wonderful man. The memories of his kindness and the words of encouragement he gave me will remain in my heart. Pastor Ken, thank you for caring. Thank you for checking up on me. Thank you for always reminding me to keep pushing and never give up. Though you are no longer with us physically, the impact of your life and the memories you created will continue to live on in the hearts of those you touched. Rest peacefully, Pastor Ken Ayere. You were a good man, a kind colleague, and a great source of encouragement.

Pastor Ken was a father figure who possessed a calming presence, always taking the time to assess a situation before responding. As a minister, his primary focus was his divine assignment, which he placed even above his own needs. I once had the privilege of riding with him from the Island to the Mainland. Our conversations during that journey brought back precious memories of the discussions I used to have with my late father. He carried a profound depth of wisdom and righteousness. I want to thank him for saying yes to Jesus. He was truly a gallant soldier for Christ. Rest on, Daddy, until we meet at the rapture.
